

REAL ESTATE & DEVELOPMENT SERIES*

The Real Estate Committee will continue with its mission to keep chamber members informed on the region's burgeoning commercial and residential real estate scene while also offering industry-specific networking opportunities. Programming will touch upon all aspects of real estate development, acquisitions, management and investment. Topics may include: commercial and residential real estate market updates, sustainable design and building, public/private partnerships, infrastructure improvements, the N² District Initiative and other current topics in real estate. Does not include the Regional Real Estate Forum.*

Anticipated Attendance: 30-100+ per event

SMALL BUSINESS SEMINARS - bank category sold

The 2019 Small Business Seminars are a monthly series offering educational and topical programming important to small business owners. Well attended each month, our members look to the chamber to provide them with tips on marketing & branding; technology advances; social media workshops; and regional updates that impact the business community and professional development. The Small Business Series has proven to be excellent networking events for building relationships with other chamber members while learning a thing or two about doing better business.
